

Have you ever considered serving in the NH Air National Guard as an officer?

The NH Air Guard has an open Public Health position available with a commissioning opportunity.

Position Location: 157th Medical Group, Pease ANGB, Portsmouth, NH

Application Information: Interested personnel can submit a resume with cover letter in the format of their choice; however, contained in the application will be evidence of satisfaction of any education and/or other special requirements. In addition, interested personnel will submit originals of their baccalaureate degree (or higher) transcript. For commissioned officers please submit copies of OPR's. Applications must be received in the office listed below NLT 3:30 PM on 31 Dec 2013.

Mail applications to:

NH Air National Guard Recruiting
Attn: SMSgt Ron Connary
302 Newmarket St
Pease ANGB, NH 03803-0157
Email: ronald.connary@ang.af.mil
Phone: 603-430-2466

Special Qualifications: For entry into this specialty, it is mandatory to possess either: a Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine (DVM/VMD), Public Health (DrPH), Epidemiology (PhD), or a bachelor's degree in a biological science, and a Community College of the Air Force (CCAF) degree in public health/environmental medicine technology or allied health sciences; or a Master's Degree in Public Health (MPH/MSPH) or Epidemiology (MS), and a bachelor's degree in a biological science. All degrees must emanate from academic institutions recognized by the Surgeon General, HQ USAF. Also, all MPH or equivalent degrees must be from schools or programs (including distance learning) listed as fully accredited by the Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH).

Training: For award of AFSC 43H3, completion of the Public Health Officer (PHO) course, Entomology/ConOps course, and the Advanced PHO course is mandatory. Member will have to attend Air Force Commissioned Officer Training (COT).

Specialty Summary: Applies preventive and public health knowledge, techniques, and skills to promote health and to reduce the incidence of communicable diseases, occupational illnesses, food borne diseases, and disease and nonbattle injuries while in garrison as well as in field conditions. Promotes the public health through epidemiological surveillance of health and disease trends in populations, as well as monitoring food safety practices, and sanitation levels in public and food service facilities. Related DoD Occupational Group: 260803.

POSSIBLE $45,000 BONUS TO BE SPLIT OVER A THREE YEAR APPOINTMENT.